

QUALITY POLICY

At GNDEC, we are committed to achieve, maintain and continuously improve technical excellence, ethical values and overall development of our students, to global standards with our enhancing competence in teaching and research. We are also committed to support and improve regional rural development through technology.